This file is a sample of « The Book »

It allows you to discover

- The list of supported planes
- The list of operators included to the book
  - An overview of pages
- An overview of the registration index

We have prepared this book to make you enjoy the content of the website Airfleets.net in a paper format. We have integrated aircraft currently in service for civilian operators (with data such as serial number, registration, type and key dates of the plane).

We hope that this book will satisfy you and we apologize if you see some mistakes which are inevitable for such a large number of data.

A Supported aircraft

The list of aircraft below shows the data included in this book. This list includes the majority of civilian aircraft currently in service worldwide. The code in brackets will allow you to identify the type of aircraft in the following pages.

Airbus A300 (A300)	ATR 42/72 (ATR)	Boeing 777 (B777)	Fokker 70/100 (F100)
Airbus A310 (A310)	BAE 146 / AVRO RJ (BAE146)	Boeing 787 (B787)	Lockheed L1011 (L10)
Airbus A318 (A318)	Beech 1900D (BEH)	Bombardier CRJ (CRJ)	McDonnell DC10 (DC10)
Airbus A319 (A319)	Boeing 717 (B717)	Bombardier Dash8 (DH8)	McDonnell MD11 (MD11)
Airbus A320 (A320)	Boeing 737 Classic (B737)	Embraer 120 (E120)	McDonnell MD80/90 (M80)
Airbus A321 (A321)	Boeing 737 Next Gen (B737NG)	Embraer 135/145 (E145)	Saab 2000 (S20)
Airbus A330 (A330)	Boeing 747 (B747)	Embraer 170/175 (E170)	Saab 340 (SF3)
Airbus A340 (A340)	Boeing 757 (B757)	Embarer 190/195 (E190)	Sukhoi SJ100 (SSJ)
Airbus A380 (A380)	Boeing 767 (B767)	Fokker 50 (F50)

A Legend

- 1 Operator name
- 2 Country where the operator is established
- 3 IATA and ICAO codes (past & present)
- 4 Website address
- 5 Radio callsign
- 6 Operator logo
- 7 Fleet matrix : Displays the number of aircraft in service by type (see above for codes)
- 8 Plane MSN : Manufacturer Serial Number (for some aircraft, in brackets : the Line Number LN)
- 9 Plane registration
- 10 Plane type
- 11 Date of delivery: note that if the plane left the fleet for a temporary lease to another operator, the delivery date will be equal to the final integration into the fleet. Sometimes the lack of information requires us to estimate the date of delivery
- 12 Year of production: between brackets is indicated the age of the aircraft
- 13 Fleet includes all supported aircraft in service. In case of an aircraft temporary lease (for a significant duration) to another operator, it is not indicated. Instead in the opposite listed aircraft leased are indicated
- 14 Separation : in case the operator have more than one plane type, a separation will be inserted into the fleet listing
